

WHY A WHOLE STREET

One truck, one street, one morning

A yard service is priced by the driving, not the scooping. When several houses on a street are on the same day, the route stops being a series of trips and becomes one walk — and that is the version of this business that stays affordable.

Same day for the whole block

Neighbours on one schedule means one visit, one truck and one set of gates to learn.

Tell a neighbour, both of you benefit

Refer someone on your street and there is a credit in it for you. Ask when you sign up.

HOA and common areas too

Shared greens, dog runs and pet stations are quoted separately after a free walkthrough.

GET ON THE SCHEDULE

Start with your own yard

Sign up for any residential plan and the first cleanup is free, however long it has been. Then tell the two houses either side.

HOW IT WORKS

Four steps, then you stop thinking about it

Pick your plan

How many dogs, how often. Weekly, twice weekly, every other week or once a month, at a flat monthly rate.

The first cleanup is free

With any residential plan, whatever state the yard is in. That is the whole first visit, not a discount on it.

We text on our way

You never have to be home. The same technician every visit.

Yard's clear

Everything bagged and hauled off your property — never left in your own bin. Then we text you it is done.

WHAT IT IS WORTH

Fifteen minutes a week, back

At a quarter of an hour a week, scooping your own yard costs about thirteen hours a year — in February as well as June.

Weekly service for one dog is $80 a month, which works out around $18.50 a visit. Rates rise with the number of dogs and fall with less frequent service; the site has the current table.

THE CREW

Actual dog people

Max's Poo Crew is the yard-care arm of Max's K9 Club, where the same people handle training, boarding and daycare.

Insured and vetted

Every team member is background-checked before they set foot on your property.

They read dogs

The crew works with dogs every day and knows when to back off and give one space.
