

THE DOGS

Max and Simon

The two Labradors this crew is named after. Both are nationally certified in human remains detection through NASAR, the National Association for Search and Rescue.

Max

Chocolate Labrador. Namesake of the whole operation and the reason any of this exists.

Simon

Black Labrador. Certified alongside Max, and the one you'll see on the truck.

WHY IT MATTERS TO YOU

A crew that trains search dogs knows how to read a dog that is nervous about a stranger in the yard — and knows when to back off.

Talk to a person

Call and you get someone who knows the routes, not a call centre. Or scan and we'll come back to you the same day.

Insured and background-checked

Every crew member is vetted and covered before they set foot on your property.

The same face every week

One technician on one day. They learn your gate, your dog, and the corner everyone else forgets.

Local, not a franchise

Based in Chesterfield. We serve two counties and no more, because that is what we can do properly.

WHO WE ARE

It started with working dogs

Michael Harvey founded Max's K9 Club and oversees Max's Poo Crew. He is a lifelong dog enthusiast with a deep appreciation for the remarkable abilities of working dogs — a passion that took hold watching search-and-rescue canines work in the days after 9/11.

His career kept him out of the K9 field at the time, but he never let the dream go. Successful real estate and software development businesses eventually gave him the room to build it for real.

Max's Poo Crew is the yard-care arm of that work. It grew out of a simple observation: the families who trusted us with training, boarding and daycare also wanted their yards to be a safe, clean place for their dogs to be dogs.

Training, boarding, grooming and daycare in Chesterfield — the same crew, the same standards.

Max's Poo Crew is a Max's K9 Club company. 229 Chesterfield Business Parkway, Chesterfield, MO 63005.

WHAT WE ACTUALLY DO

Every visit, every yard

- 1 We text before we arrive
You never have to be home, and you are never surprised by someone in the yard.
- 2 The whole yard gets walked
Not just the obvious spots. Side returns, along the fence, behind the shed.
- 3 Everything leaves with us
Bagged and hauled off your property. It never goes in your bin.
- 4 The gate gets double-checked
Every single time. This is the one thing we will not get wrong.
- 5 You get a text when it's clear
So you know before you let the dog out.

IF WE GET IT WRONG

Miss a spot? Tell us within 48 hours and we come back and re-service, free. No argument and no paperwork.
